This Brochure Supplement provides information about Aaron Katsman that supplements the Portfolio Resources Advisor Group Brochure. You should have received a copy of that Brochure. Please contact Antonio Camejo at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or acamejo@prginc.net if you did not receive Portfolio Resources Advisor Group's Brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Aaron Katsman is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov and on FINRA's website at www.finra.org/brokercheck.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Aaron Katsman, born in 1970, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group since October 2004 and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisor Group (PRAG) since December 2008.

Mr. Katsman started in 2009 his own boutique investment firm, Lighthouse Capital Ltd. where he works with a global clientele developing investment portfolios with a focus on global securities. He is a licensed financial professional both in the U.S. and in Israel. He is currently a member of the Investment Committee of PRG's Advisor Group.

Business Experience:

Mr. Katsman has been a registered representative since November 2004. From July 2001 to September 2004 he worked at Citibank at Tel Aviv, Israel where he founded and managed the bank's Israeli Private Banking Group.

From June 2005 to December 2008 he was founder and lead portfolio manager at American Israel Investment Associates, LLC at Jerusalem, Israel, where he managed a portfolio of Israeli securities. He has also worked at Israel Seed Partners, a leading Israeli venture capital fund where he gained an intimate working knowledge of the Israeli high-tech scene. From October 2004 to February 2009 he was a registered representative at Profile Investments, Jerusalem, Israel.

Educational Background:

Mr. Katsman earned a B.A. degree in political science in 1993 from Yeshiva University New York, NY.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Mr. Katsman has a Series 7 Securities License (General Securities Representative Examination) since November 2004, a Series 63 (Uniform Securities Agent State Law Examination) since November 2004, and a Series 65 (Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination) since May 2005.

Mr. Katsman was licensed as an Investment Advisor from September 2001 to May 2019, and is licensed since May 2019 to present as an Investment Marketer, by the Israeli Securities Authority.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Aaron Katsman has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Aaron Katsman is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. He is compensated through fees based on the sale of securities, investment products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 85% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities. In order to be compliant with ISA regulations, Mr. Katsman has declined to accept commissions from trades on exchanges and sets the commission fee to only cover the cost that PRG charges him. Instead, he earns money from the fees from the accounts, like the accountant administration fees. He does not earn money from trading commissions, as required by the Israeli Securities Authority.

This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Aaron Katsman is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended commission-based products.

Mr. Katsman has appeared on CNBC's Squawk Box, as well as, being a contributor and personal finance columnist to both SeekingAlpha.com and The Jerusalem Post, and he is frequently invited to lecture on the Israeli economy.

He is a Chairman of the Board of the Bet Knesset Obel Ahron Synagogue, Jerusalem, Israel and a Neighborhood Councilman for the Ginot Hair Community Council Jerusalem, Israel. Mr. Katsman is also in the Board of Directors of Mesila, a non-profit organization dedicated to combating poverty by empowering men, women and children to seek, achieve and maintain economic self-sufficiency and financial stability.

Aaron Katsman is author of the book Retirement GPS: How to Navigate Your Way to A Secure Financial Future with Global Investing (McGraw-Hill).

Mr. Katsman is also a Retire Mentor for marketwatch.com.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Aaron Katsman does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client, or as disclosed in the client's Investment Management Agreement.

Item 6 - Supervision

Aaron Katsman is supervised by Antonio Camejo, Chief Compliance Officer. Antonio Camejo can be reached at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or at acamejo@prginc.net.

Aaron Katsman is required to adhere to PRAG processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. We will monitor the advice that Mr. Katsman gives you by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. It is a consultative body which confers from time to time to analyze market conditions and discuss general investment ideas and/or review specific products which may be suitable for certain types of clients. Members of the committee are available to Investment Advisor Representatives for consultations regarding individual client portfolios, or the suitability of specific products. The Committee recommends that Investment Advisor Representatives review the following with clients at least once a year: investment objectives, targeted allocation, current allocation, suitability, performance, number of trades, monthly distributions, concentrated positions, diversification, and outside holdings. PRAG current Investment Committee members are: Antonio Camejo, Chairman; J. Christopher Cogswell, AIF® CCIP® (Portfolio Manager, PRAG Managed Risk Strategies), Associate Director; Douglas Goldstein, CFP®; Aaron Katsman; Ann-Marja Lander CFP® AIF®; Harry Moran, CFP®, AIF®; Joyce K. Her Finance degree was obtained in a cross-registration program primarily at Babson College, together with Regis College.

Media and Professional Activities:

Mrs. White has written investment related articles for a Management/Business magazine, Gerente. She has been interviewed by Bloomberg News regarding Venezuela and PDVSA debt. She also authored a weekly Fixed Income newsletter for clients when she headed the BBO Fixed Income trading desk.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Carolina White has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Mrs. White is a Registered Representative (Foreign Associate) of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker/dealer, member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. She is compensated on commissions-based sales of securities and investments, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds.

This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that she could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees, or other payments. However, Carolina White is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended commission-based products.

Also, Mrs. White is a member of the board of directors of BBO Capital Partners LLC.

Approximately 95% of her income is derived from these non-advisory activities.

In her spare time, Mrs. White runs a Multisport Center in Caracas, CARACAS MULTISPORT, a triathlete swimming and health center.

Item 4- Additional Compensation

Carolina White does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client, or as disclosed in the client's Investment Management Agreement.

Item 6 - Supervision

Carolina White is supervised by Antonio Camejo, PRAG's Chief Compliance Officer. Antonio Camejo can be reached at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or at acamejo@prginc.net.

Carolina White is required to adhere to PRAG processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. PRAG will monitor the advice Mrs. White gives you by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. It is a consultative body which confers from time to time to analyze market conditions and discuss general investment ideas and/or review specific products which may be suitable for certain types of clients. Members of the committee are available to Investment Advisor Representatives for consultations regarding individual client portfolios, or the suitability of specific products. The Committee recommends that Investment Advisor Representatives review the following with clients at least once a year: investment objectives, targeted allocation, current allocation, suitability, performance, number of trades, monthly distributions, concentrated positions, diversification, and outside holdings. PRAG's current Investment Committee members are: Antonio Camejo, Chairman; J. Christopher Cogswell, AIF® CCIP® (Portfolio Manager, PRAG Managed Risk Strategies), Associate Director; Douglas Goldstein, CFP®; Aaron Katsman; Ann-Marja Lander CFP® AIF®; Harry Moran, CFP®, AIF®; Joyce K. This Brochure Supplement provides information about Douglas Goldstein that supplements the Portfolio Resources Advisor Group Brochure. You should have received a copy of that Brochure. Please contact Antonio Camejo at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or acamejo@prginc.net if you did not receive Portfolio Resources Advisor Group's Brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Douglas Goldstein is available on the SEC's website at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/individual/summary/2229128> and on FINRA's website at <https://brokercheck.finra.org/individual/summary/2229128>.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Douglas Goldstein, born in 1969, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group since July 2002 and Member of the Investment Committee of Portfolio Resources Advisor Group (PRAG) since June 2007. He is an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of PRAG since August 2011.

In 1997, Mr. Goldstein established Profile Investment Services Ltd., an Israeli financial services firm. He is a licensed financial professional both in the U.S. and in Israel. He is an Associate Director of Portfolio Resources Group and a member of the firm's Advisory Council and Investment Committee. His U.S. and Israeli securities licenses allow him to both advise clients, as well as oversee other investment professionals. He is accredited by the Israel Securities Authority as an investment marketer and is an international member of the Financial Planning Association.

Mr. Goldstein's extensive experience, both in the United States and in Israel, uniquely qualifies him to assist Israeli and other international investors in developing appropriate investment strategies.

Business Experience:

Mr. Goldstein has been a registered representative since April 1992. From April 1992 to February 1997 he was a registered representative at Dean Witter Reynolds Inc., White Plains, NY. From March 1997 to November 1997 he was a registered representative at Hudson Sloane & Co. LLC, New York. From September 1997 to October 1999 he was a registered representative at Oscar Gruss & Son, Inc, New York. From October 1999 to July 2002 he was a registered representative and an investment adviser representative at Investacorp, Inc., Miami Lakes, FL. From June 2005 to December 2008 he was an investment adviser at American Israel Investment Associates, Miami FL.

Educational Background:

Mr. Goldstein earned a B.A. degree in English in 1991 from Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, NY.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Mr. Goldstein has a Series 7 Securities License (General Securities Representative Examination) since April 1992, a Series 63 (Uniform Securities Agent State Law Examination) since May 1992, a Series 65 (Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination) since February 2005, a Series 8 from October 1997 (General Securities Sales Supervisor Examination –Options Module & General Module-), a Series 31 (Futures Managed Funds Examination) since June 1993, and earned his Certified Financial Planner™ designation in 2005. Mr. Goldstein was licensed as an Investment Advisor from July 1997 to August 2019, and is currently licensed by the Israeli Securities Authority (ISA) as an Investment Marketer.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination, which is administered in 6 hours over a two-day period. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience.

Item 3-Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Douglas Goldstein has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Douglas Goldstein is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. For sending clients to PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, he receives a portion of the fees that PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP collects based on the sale of securities, investment products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 70% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities. In order to be compliant with ISA regulations, Mr. Goldstein has declined to accept commissions from trades on exchanges and sets the commission fee to only cover the cost that PRG charges him. Instead, he earns money from the fees from the accounts, like the accountant administration fees.

This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Douglas Goldstein is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest and he does not earn money from trading commissions, as required by the Israeli Securities Authority. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended commission-based products.

Mr. Goldstein publishes a weekly financial column in the Jerusalem Post about key financial concepts and issues for more than 20 years. He has also appeared on numerous local television programs commenting on the state of world financial markets. Douglas Goldstein is the author of the books, The Inheritance Book: What you need to know about receiving and investing an inheritance from the U.S. when you live in Israel, Rich As A King: How the Wisdom of Chess Can Make You a Grandmaster of Investing, Building Wealth in Israel: A Guide to International Investments and Financial Planning, The Expatriates Guide to Handling Money and Taxes, The Retirement Planning Book, and others. Mr. Goldstein is owner and director of Southern Hills Press, a print on demand publishing company which publishes books for a fee.

Mr. Goldstein is an adjunct professor in the school of business at Webster University where he teaches the MBA and undergraduate course in personal finance. He hosts an online financial radio show/podcast, The Goldstein On Gelt Show, which can be heard at www.GoldsteinOnGelt.com as well as other sites, including Israel National Radio (www.israelnationalairradio.com).

Mr. Goldstein is director of the Profile Family Office, serving non-investment needs of wealthy clients, primarily clients' philanthropic work.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Douglas Goldstein provides financial planning and consulting services to Israeli clients through Profile Investment Services Ltd., for which he receives compensation separately. He also receives income for securities transactions and consulting services payments through PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a FINRA and SIPC member broker-dealer.

Item 6 - Supervision

Douglas Goldstein is supervised by Antonio Camejo, Chief Compliance Officer. Antonio Camejo can be reached at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or at acamejo@prginc.net. Douglas Goldstein is required to adhere to PRAG processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. We will monitor Mr. Goldstein's activities by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. It is a consultative body which confers from time to time to analyze market conditions and discuss general investment ideas and/or review specific products which may be suitable for certain types of clients. Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

J. Chris Cogswell, born in 1967, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisor Group (PRAG) since January 2008. He is currently an Associate Director of PRG, a member of the firm's Advisory Council and a leading member of its Investment Committee. Since November 2014 Chris is the Portfolio Manager of the PRAG Managed Risk Strategies. From July 2002 to December 2007, Chris was an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group.

Chris established Chancery Financial Advisors in Louisville, Kentucky in 2002, with the vision of servicing clients with the help of a talented and character driven team of people. To that end, Chris has put together an office and built relationships with people that appreciate that same vision. Prior to establishing Chancery Financial Advisors, Chris lived and worked in Hong Kong and in China in the investment banking industry, where he spent eight years.

Business Experience:

Chris worked as an equity analyst with Peregrine Brokerage Ltd. in Hong Kong covering the Chinese stock markets from 1994 through 1996. He held the same role with Nikko Research Center from 1996 through 1998 and was based in Shanghai from 1997 to 1998. During this time Chris traveled throughout China visiting companies and developing relationships that he maintains to this day. Chris left the banking world for the corporate world, working in Strategic Investments for Distacom Communications Ltd. in Hong Kong from 1998 through 2000. He aided Distacom in the management of its US$1bn wireless investment portfolio, including investments in Japan, Hong Kong, India, Malaysia, and Thailand.

Educational Background:

Chris graduated Indiana University, Bloomington graduating in 1989 with a BA in History from the College of Arts and Sciences, and a Certificate of Public Affairs from the School of Public and Environmental Affairs. His Asian history studies at IU led him to study Chinese culture and language in Beijing for an academic year. Chris received a degree in Mandarin Chinese from the Beijing Foreign Language Normal College in 1990 and a Master of International Management (MIM) with a concentration in finance at the Thunderbird School of Global Management in 1993.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Chris is an Accredited Investment Fiduciary® and a member of the Center for Fiduciary Studies. In addition, Chris is a Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner®. He has both Series 7 and Series 66 registrations. He has a Life Insurance License in Kentucky.

Administered by fi360, the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) professional designation demonstrates knowledge and competency in the area of fiduciary responsibility and communicates a commitment to standards of investment fiduciary excellence. Holders of the AIF® mark have successfully completed a specialized program on investment fiduciary standards and subsequently passed a comprehensive examination. Six hours of continuing education is required annually in order to maintain the designation.

As a Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner®, certified by the Association for Catholic Investing, Chris has had training to be able to integrate Catholic social criteria into the investment decision process. As a CCIP®, Chris is also a member in good standing with the Financial Advocacy Network.

The Association for Catholic Investing was formed to work with all types of registered financial advisers and investors who wish to integrate Catholic social criteria into their investment decisions. To meet the educational needs of investment advisors, interested individuals, and Catholic organizations, the Association for Catholic Investors provides dedicated educational services. Financial professionals receive educational training on the background of Catholic investing and certification testing. After successfully passing the testing, the Association accepts them into membership and confers the designation "Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner". The CCIP® designation requires a commitment to Catholic values and an understanding of the principles supported by the US Catholic Bishops. Qualification is maintained on an annual basis in order to assure that the practitioner remains current in the investing guidelines of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Members are automatically listed in the Financial Advocacy Network that provides opportunities for corporate engagement and access to proxy voting recommendations.

Personal:

Chris is married to Ampy Lee Cogswell, a fellow alumnus of Thunderbird; they have two adopted sons. He can't find enough time for cycling, reading up on economics, markets and personal finance issues, or learning what makes successful people. Chris is a member of the St Martin of Tours Catholic parish in downtown Louisville, Kentucky and a member of the Holy Innocents Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Julio Lopez-Brito, born in 1956, is an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) with Portfolio Resources Advisor Group since April 2018.

Business Experience:

Mr. Lopez-Brito has more than 20 years professional experience as a Corporate Finance senior executive in multinational, domestic, and non-profit organizations as well as an independent Mergers & Acquisitions and Investment Advisor to Latin American High Network Individuals, business owners and closely-held businesses.

He joined NYLIFE Securities, LLC as an Agent and Registered Representative (RR) in October 2016 and left in January 2018, to join Portfolio Resources Advisor Group, Inc., as an IAR the following April. He was also a Licensed Insurance Agent of New York Life Insurance Company from July of 2016 to January 2018.

Educational Background:

Mr. Lopez-Brito earned a MPhil ('84) and MBA ('83) in Finance and Statistics from New York University Leonard N. Stern School of Business. He is also a graduate of the ABA Stonier Graduate School of Banking. He has a BA in Economics from Universidad Católica Andrés Bello in Caracas, Venezuela.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Mr. Lopez-Brito holds the Retirement Income Certified Professional (RICP®) designation since December of 2017 and the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification since December 2019. He has a Series 6 (Investment Company and Variable Contract Products Representative Examination) license since September 2016; a Series 63 (Uniform Securities Agent State Law Examination) license since October 2016; a series 65 (Uniform Investment Advisor Law Examination) since February 2018; and a Florida Life, Health & Variable Annuity (215) license since June 2016.

The RICP® credential is awarded by The American College®, a non-profit, accredited and degree-granting educational institution founded in 1927. The RICP® is an advanced designation earned by individuals working in the retirement income planning field. Requirements for the designation include a minimum of three college-level courses, a series of two-hour proctored exams, and at least three years of experience in the financial services industry. Recipients of the RICP® designation also must meet stringent ethics requirements and participates in The American College's continuing education program. Retirement Income Certified Professionals® identify retirement income objectives and needs and evaluate a client's current situation relative to those goals by using the most current techniques. Individuals who earn a RICP® can provide expertise on a broad range of retirement topics.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination, which is administered in 6 hours over a two-day period. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience.

The Enrolled Agent (EA) status is the highest credential the IRS awards. Individuals who obtain this elite status must adhere to ethical standards and complete 72 hours of continuing education courses every three years. Enrolled agents, like attorneys and certified public accountants (CPAs), have unlimited practice rights. This means they are unrestricted as to which taxpayers they can represent, what types of tax matters they can handle, and before which IRS offices they can represent clients.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Tom Moser, born in 1953, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group (PRG) and Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisor Group (PRAG) since January 2008. He is currently an Associate Director of PRAG, a member of the firm's Advisory Council, its Investment Committee and a leading member of its Impact Investing Division, specializing in 21st Century socially screened investments.

Thomas Moser is Founder and President of High Impact Investments®. His expertise is in portfolio management of clean energy, clean water, healthy food and preventative health care solution company stocks.

Business Experience:

Mr. Moser joined the company that was to become First Affirmative Financial Network as a financial planner in 1989. His "early on" personal interest in solar, wind, and geothermal were an outgrowth of his desire to leverage time, money and work towards making the greatest planet impact. The High Impact Growth portfolio was launched in 2003 and the High Impact Growth and Income portfolio was launched in 2009, both as part of First Affirmative Financial's Generation program. Since that initial launch High Impact® has evolved by moving onto the Envestnet trading platform.

Since February 2008 Tom Moser has been an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group. From May 2007 to June 2008 he was an investment adviser representative of Responsible Portfolio Management, LLC. From February 2002 to December 2007 Tom was an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group. From August 1999 to December 2004 he was an investment adviser representative of First Affirmative Financial Network LLC. He is an Associate Director of PRAG and a member of its Investment Committee. As a broker, Tom Moser was a Registered Representative (RR) of Financial West Group from October 2001 to December 2007, of Walnut Street Securities, Inc. from October 1990 to June 2001, and of Associated Planners Securities Corporation from June 1989 to October 1990.

Educational Background:

Mr. Moser graduated with a MA in Education in 1978 from the University of Arizona. He graduated with a BA in Education in 1975, likewise from the University of Arizona.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Tom has a Series 7 Securities License, a Series 24, Series 63 and Series 65.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Tom Moser was a named party in a customer dispute regarding suitability filed the SEC on September 21, 2016. It was resolved through a settlement to the satisfaction of all parties. Mr Moser agreed to settle this matter to avoid the expense and inconvenience of further proceedings and his agreement did not constitute the acknowledgment of any wrongdoing or liability.
